

MAPLETON MONTESSORI SCHOOL

QUESTIONNAIRE

Your thoughtfulness and thoroughness will help us better understand your child. Thank you.

Child's Name _____ Age ____yrs. ____ mos. Date _____

Is child adopted? _____ When? _____ Does he/she know it? _____

Are parents separated, divorced, deceased or is either absent for long periods? _____

Please explain: _____

Siblings names and ages: _____

Other members of household, relationship and age: _____

How does your child spend time at home? (list activities) _____

Describe any special skills, talents, interests such as an ability to read or musical talent. _____

How often does your child have baby sitters? _____

Has your child had any other group experience? If so, what? _____

Does your child have any particular fears? Explain _____

Describe your child's most desirable quality. _____

What bothers you most about your child? _____

How would you describe your child's personality? Include emotional, intellectual, physical and social development up to this point and any particular quirks your child might have.

Describe your usual method of discipline.

Mother _____

Father _____

Describe any special information about your child or family situation which will help us to better understand your child, for example: nervous habits, adoption, illnesses, family upsets, allergies, sight or hearing problems, etc. Please keep us aware of any changing situations throughout the year which might affect your child.

Help us keep in contact with you by letting us know any concerns you may have about your child at any time. Optional observations and conferences are held twice a year. Please rate, in order of importance, the areas you would like most to hear about at your next conference, from 1-most important to 6-least important.:

___Social & Friends ___Intellectual ___Physical ___Emotional ___Favorite Lessons ___How you can help your child

___Other, please explain: _____

Please list any other concerns or goals you have concerning your child and your child's school.

List any special talents, hobbies, interests, etc., that you would be willing to share with the children in the classroom, for example: music, a slide show of your trip to China!, cooking a special/holiday treat, story telling, etc. Parents often share their expertise with us during special units of study or the holidays . . . don't be shy!
